

EMERGENCIES AFFECT

the entire family including your pets

But you can prepare.

1. Download this pet emergency contact card from the AVMA and keep it in your wallet to easily reference any important phone numbers you need. Make sure you can reach the people and organizations you need when the time is critical.
2. Download our Saving the Whole Family booklet and other resources for tips on assembling emergency kits, checklists and plans.

+ My PET EMERGENCY numbers

Boarding kennel	Pet sitter
Shelters/pounds	Alternate care taker information

+ My PET EMERGENCY numbers

Veterinarian	Poison Control
Animal control	Police (non-emergency)
	Fire department (non-emergency)

For more disaster preparedness tips visit avam.org/Disaster

Directions

CUT along the dotted lines
FOLD along the solid lines

Download all of the AVMA emergency and disaster resources at avam.org/Disaster